Justification for Sole Source

1. As the co-owner of V & R Behavioral Health Services (V&R), Dr. Vaselakos would personally oversee all screening of officers and the operation of the program. Dr. Vaselakos has a diverse clinical background in forensic psychology and interchange between law enforcement and mental health.
2. Our practice is currently and has treated many police officers, (including many OPPD officers) for a wide range of clinical and work-related issues. This includes completing many fitness for duty evaluations over the years.
3. Dr. Vaselakos personally has provided training on stress and stress management for police departments including last year's training at the OPPD. V & R has also conducted training for area departments on mental health /mental illness, and on how to detect mental health issues in the field.
4. V & R is ideally located right next to the OPPD at 700 Ravinia Place.
5. V & R has been in practice providing mental health services in Orland Park since 1998.
6. V & R has a unique training in which a local police officer is completing his clinical training for his MSW with us by developing a Police Peer Supportive Counseling Group.
7. V & R is committed to providing the most effective mental health services by meeting officers on all three shifts to minimize any disruption in the daily operations of the department.
8. V & R will be providing the same service to other local police departments.
9. V & R has the ability to provide both male and female therapists to conduct screening.
10. We have relied on V & R to conduct all of the health screenings of the Orland Park Police officers, for the previous two years, which much success.
