

Village of Orland Park Community Messiah Proposal

Submitted by the Orland Park Arts Commission

Represented by Arts Commissioner Bette Schieber

Approval by the Village Board of Trustees for a community Sing-Along *Messiah is requested. This is an exciting opportunity to present, for a second year, one of the most famous and beloved classical works in a sing-along-format to area residents. Last year the Village approved the first sing-along Messiah and it was presented to a sold out audience. Below is an itemized list of the specifics regarding the performance of a community Messiah 2007.

Event:

- Community Messiah sing along
- Sunday, December 2, 2007 at 4:00 pm
- Carl Sandburg Performing Arts Center (space has been confirmed)
- Proposal submitted by the Village of Orland Park Arts Commission

Budget requested:

- $9000.00

Benefits for the Community:

- The Arts Commission echoes the sentiments on the third page, third to the last paragraph of Mr. Thomen's proposal when he refers to the value of a participatory Messiah to our community.

The following costs have been determined:

- $6,000.00 for musicians, soloists, director, and contractor fees

The following costs are based on last year's totals

- Sandburg $363.40
- 200 Scores $1350.00 (this cost will be less or eliminated as all scores did not sell)
- Posters $38.00
- Flyers $90.87
- Performers' Food $91.77
- Programs $447.56

The following costs are under review

- Cartage costs for timpani and clavinova (harpsichord) As per Willard Thomen's proposal
