BETWEEN THE VILLAGE OF ORLAND PARK
AND KLEIN, THORPE AND JENKINS, LTD.

This Agreement for Legal Services ("Agreement") is entered into by and between the Village of Orland Park, a municipal corporation organized and existing under the laws of Illinois ("Village"), and Klein, Thorpe and Jenkins, LTD., an Illinois professional corporation ("Law Firm" or "Firm"). Collectively, the Village and the Law Firm are referred to herein as the "Parties."

ARTICLE I SCOPE AND ADMINISTRATION OF AGREEMENT

Scope of Engagement. The Law Firm is hereby engaged to provide those legal services described in Exhibit A ("Scope of Services"), at the direction of the Village Manager or designee, and in strict accordance with this Agreement. The primary attorneys responsible for the Village's matters are Dennis G. Walsh, with assistance from other Law Firm attorneys as necessary. Any material revision to the scope of services must be approved in writing by both Parties.

Additional Engagements. The Law Firm may represent the Village in additional matters, subject to mutual written approval and as set forth in this Agreement or the Scope of Services.

Dodd-Frank Act Notice. Pursuant to Section 975 of the Dodd-Frank Act, the Law Firm does not act as a financial advisor or financial expert regarding the issuance of municipal securities or municipal financial products. Any advice, recommendation, or opinion expressed by the Law Firm shall not be deemed to constitute financial advice or expertise regarding such matters.

Standard of Care. The Law Firm agrees to perform services in accordance with the standards customarily adhered to by experienced, competent law firms in Illinois, exercising the care and skill ordinarily used by reputable attorneys.

Professional Judgment and Limitations. The Law Firm cannot guarantee the outcome of any matter. Any expression of professional judgment is limited by the Firm's knowledge of facts and interpretation of law at the time, and subject to unknown or undisclosed factors.

Independent Contractor. The Law Firm is an independent contractor providing services in accordance with this Agreement, its Proposal (as applicable), and the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.

Additional Firms and Contractors. The Village reserves the right to retain, at its own expense, additional law firms or contractors for any services it deems necessary.

Modification of Scope. The Village may order changes to the scope of services by altering, adding to, or deducting from the services to be performed. Any material revision is subject to the Law Firm's prior written consent and all changes must be in writing.

Restrictions and Regulations. The Law Firm will promptly notify the Village in writing of any regulations or restrictions which may require modification of the quality or performance of services. The Village may accept or reject such modifications or terminate this Agreement at no expense if modifications are not acceptable.

Consent to Electronic Communication. The Parties consent to the use of electronic communications (e.g., email, document transfer, wireless devices) for convenience and efficiency, acknowledging that such methods may pose risks to confidentiality and privilege. The Village agrees that the benefits outweigh the risks.

ARTICLE II CONFIDENTIALITY AND RELATED MATTERS

Attorney-Client Privilege. The Law Firm shall maintain the confidentiality of information relating to its representation of the Village, subject to applicable law and exceptions. The attorney-client relationship is with the Village as an entity, not with individual officials, employees, or other persons. In litigation matters where elected or appointed officials or employees are named parties, privilege extends to them as well.

Village's Duty to Inform. The Village is obligated to inform the Law Firm of unasserted possible claims or potential litigation so that proper disclosures can be made to auditors and so that the Law Firm may provide appropriate representation.

Privileged Communications. The Village shall treat all communications, including invoices and legal advice, as privileged and confidential, even if not specifically marked, subject to exceptions under the Freedom of Information Act or Open Meetings Act.

Outsourcing and Confidentiality. The Law Firm may outsource certain administrative or legal support functions, potentially involving third parties (including those outside the U.S.). The Law Firm will comply with all applicable legal ethics rules regarding outsourcing and the protection of confidential information.

Artificial Intelligence. The Law Firm may utilize AI for work performed for the Village, verifying the accuracy of AI-generated information in accordance with applicable professional conduct rules and its own AI policy.

Sunshine Law Compliance. The Village is subject to the Freedom of Information Act and Open Meetings Act, and information required to be made public under these laws will not be treated as confidential. The Law Firm will treat all other information as confidential to the extent permitted by law.

In-House Privilege. The Law Firm may consult with its own internal or external counsel regarding its rights and obligations to the Village. Such communications are privileged and not subject to disclosure.

ARTICLE III PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

Duty to Preserve. Upon notice of a claim or litigation, the Village must retain all relevant documents and Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”), suspend all disposal procedures, and institute a Litigation Hold to ensure preservation of evidence. The Law Firm will assist the Village in identifying required documents and, if necessary, in drafting appropriate notices to relevant personnel.

ARTICLE IV COMPENSATION, FEES, AND BILLING

Compensation. The Village will compensate the Law Firm according to the hourly rates and fee schedules set forth in Exhibit B (Compensation, Fee Schedule, and Billing Guidelines), and as specified in the Proposal, if applicable. The Law Firm’s rates may be adjusted annually, effective January 1, unless otherwise agreed. The Village must object in writing to any rate increase within 30 days of receiving the written notification of rate increase.

Invoices and Payment. The Law Firm will submit monthly invoices detailing services, time spent, and expenses. The Village agrees to pay undisputed amounts within 60 days of receipt. If the Village disputes a portion of an invoice, it shall pay the undisputed portion and promptly notify the Law Firm in writing of the dispute.

Expenses. The Village shall reimburse the Law Firm for actual, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred on its behalf, including but not limited to filing fees, travel (with prior approval), messenger services, copying, and legal research. The Law Firm will seek approval from the Village before incurring significant third-party expenses.

Non-Contingency. Payment for legal services is not contingent on the outcome of any matter unless specifically agreed to in writing.

Delinquency and Withdrawal. If a non-disputed invoice remains unpaid for more than 120 days, the Law Firm may withdraw from representation, subject to applicable ethics rules. Unpaid fees may accrue interest as provided by the Local Government Prompt Payment Act.

ARTICLE V
TERM, SUSPENSION, AND TERMINATION

Term. This Agreement is effective August 1, 2025, and continues through July 31, 2026. It may be extended for successive one-year periods unless either Party provides at least 30 days' written notice of termination prior to the end of the current term.

Suspension and Termination by Village. The Village may suspend or terminate this Agreement for convenience with 30 days' written notice. Upon termination, the Law Firm will discontinue all affected services, complete any necessary closing tasks, and deliver all work product and documents to the Village. The Village will pay the Law Firm for services satisfactorily performed to the date of suspension or termination.

Termination by Law Firm. The Law Firm may withdraw in accordance with the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct, including for reasons such as nonpayment, conflict of interest, or failure to cooperate. Written notice will be provided, and the Village remains responsible for payment of all fees and expenses incurred to the date of withdrawal.

Transition to New Counsel. Upon termination, the Law Firm is not required to release files to successor counsel until all outstanding fees and expenses are paid.

ARTICLE VI
