Good Evening,

Attached to this email is the event map for our Bites, Brews and Blues event on July 19th. I wanted to give you an update on this, as we had our walk through a couple weeks ago. The OPPD also met us on the site, where they told us fencing and policing on site was not needed. However, we did need some sort of security. The Crossing has security already, but they will ensure another security officer is on site. There will be OP police presence around the shopping center, though.

I believe you have everything needed to move forward. Please let me know if you have any questions or if you need something else.

Thank you,

Sarah

Hi Sarah,

I wish I had more knowledge about the previous meetings. Chief Rossi and I reviewed your plan and layout and it looks like you have things pretty well contained within the crossings. If you don't have private security set up we would be looking to have four officers work the event to ensure entrances are monitored and they could roam throughout the event. I should be able to make the walk-through on Thursday and we can finalize things.

Thank you,

Dave

Hi Dave,

Back in February, I met with Chief Ross and several others from the Village. Since then, I haven't received any updates regarding security, as they wanted to assess the site before providing feedback. Additionally, they were supposed to follow up on the potential use of Centennial Park West, but we have yet to hear back. Given this, we are now shifting our focus to Orland Park Crossing, the location where the Chamber hosted the Arts and Drafts event in 2022.

We have a walk-through scheduled for this Thursday at 2:30 p.m., and you are welcome to join us. If you're unable to attend, one of your team members is welcome.

Thank you for reaching out and following up regarding our new summer event.

Best,

Sarah

Hi Sarah,

Do you have a security plan developed for this event? Whether you have private security lined up, or expected officers to be hired for it, or just have nothing. We just want to make sure everything is anticipated and be ready for whatever. Let me know what you think. I appreciate it.

Thank you,

Dave

They will have a variety of food trucks, booths for Chamber members, crafters/artisans, blues music, and beer tasting. Sarah at the Chamber's office has provided a preliminary site plan (attached) and she says they plan on doing a walkthrough sometime next week.

I have attached the application with the event details and Sarah's contact information. Please let me know if there is anything else you need for the security review.
