The Owner concurrently with annexation and zoning of the property or so much thereof as required, shall reimburse the Village for the following expenses incurred in the preparation and review of this Agreement, and any ordinances, letters of credit, plats, easements or other documents relating to the Subject Property:

- (1) the costs incurred by the Village for engineering services;
- (2) all attorneys' fees incurred by the Village; and
- (3) miscellaneous Village expenses, such as legal publication costs, recording fees and copying expenses.

B. From and After Effective Date of Agreement.

Except as provided in the paragraph immediately following this paragraph, upon demand by Village made by and through its President, Owner from time to time shall promptly reimburse Village, for all enumerated reasonable expenses and costs incurred by Village in the administration of the Agreement, including and limited to engineering fees, attorneys' fees and out of pocket expenses involving various and sundry matters such as, but not limited to, preparation and publication, if any, of all notices, resolutions, ordinances and other documents required hereunder, and the negotiation and preparation of letters of credit and escrow agreements to be entered into as security for the completion of land improvements.

Such costs and expenses incurred by Village in the administration of the Agreement shall be evidenced to the Owner upon its request, by a sworn statement of the Village; and such costs and expenses may be further confirmed by the Owner at their option from additional documents relevant to determining such costs and expenses as designated from time to time by the Owner.

Notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, Owner shall in no event be required to reimburse Village or pay for any expenses or costs of Village as aforesaid more than once, whether such are reimbursed or paid through special assessment proceedings, through fees established by Village ordinances or otherwise.

In the event that any third party or parties institute any legal proceedings against the Owner and/or the Village, which relate to the terms of this Agreement, then, in that event, the Owner, on notice from Village shall assume, fully and vigorously, the entire defense of such lawsuit and all expenses of whatever nature relating thereto; provided, however:

1. Owner shall not make any settlement or compromise of the lawsuit, or fail to pursue any available avenue of appeal of any adverse judgment, without the approval of the Village.

2. If the Village, in its sole discretion, determines there is, or may probably be, a conflict of interest between Village and/or Owner, on an issue of importance to the Village having a potentially substantial adverse effect on the Village, then the Village shall have the option of being represented by its own legal counsel. In the event the Village exercises such option, then Owner shall reimburse the Village from time to time on written demand from the President of Village and notice of the amount due for any expenses, including but not limited to court costs, reasonable attorneys' fees and witnesses' fees, and other expenses of litigation, incurred by the Village in connection therewith. The obligation of Owner to reimburse Village under the terms of this subparagraph 2 shall terminate if no such legal proceedings are brought within one (1) year from the date of the annexation of the Subject Property and, further, such obligation of reimbursement shall not apply if such legal proceedings are based upon alleged errors, omissions or unlawful conduct of Village and not the Owner.

In the event the Village institutes legal proceedings against Owner for violation of this Agreement and secures a judgment in its favor, the court having jurisdiction thereof shall determine and include in its judgment all expenses of such legal proceedings incurred by Village, including but not limited to the court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, witnesses' fees, etc., incurred by the Village in connection therewith. Owner may, in its sole discretion, appeal any such judgment rendered in favor of the Village against Owner.

Failure of any party to this Agreement to insist upon the strict and prompt performance of the terms covenants, agreements, and conditions herein contained, or any of them, upon any other party imposed, shall not constitute or be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any party's right thereafter to enforce any such term, covenant, agreement or condition, but the same shall continue in full force and effect.

SECTION TWELVE: VILLAGE APPROVAL OR DIRECTION.

Where Village approval or direction is required by this Agreement, such approval or direction means the approval or direction of the Corporate Authorities of the Village unless otherwise expressly provided or required by law, and any such approval may be required to be given only after and if all requirements for granting such approval have been met unless such requirements are inconsistent with this Agreement.

SECTION TWENTY-ONE: SEVERABILITY.

If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction or in the event such a court shall determine that the Village does not have the power to perform any such provision, such provision shall be deemed to be excised herefrom and the invalidity thereof shall not affect any of the other provisions contained herein, and such judgment or decree shall relieve Village from performance under such invalid provision of this Agreement

It is agreed that, to the extent permitted by law, in the event the annexation of the Subject Property or this Agreement or zoning of any part of the Subject Property is challenged in any court proceeding which shall reasonably delay the development of the Subject Property, the period of time during which such litigation is pending shall not be included in calculating the said seven (7) year term. It is expressly understood and agreed that Owner may sell or convey all or any part of the Subject Property for the purposes of development, and upon each sale or conveyance, the purchaser shall be bound by and entitled to the benefits of this Agreement with respect to the part of the Subject Property sold or conveyed. When any such purchaser agrees to assume Owner's obligations hereunder, and where the Village is notified of such purchase and agreement, the Village hereby covenants and agrees that it shall consent to such assumption, and that it shall release Owner from its obligation hereunder with respect to that part of the Subject Property so purchased. Owner, however, may only be released where (i) provision has been made providing that all public improvements of the parcel sold will be installed and guaranteed which are reasonably required by this Agreement, the Code or Village ordinances for the efficient and healthful development of the parcel being separately developed, (ii) the Owner's interest in remaining parcels or some other guarantee of performance is present to assure the Village that any obligations assumed in this Agreement and not yet satisfactorily completed or performed by the Owner arising out of any portion of the Subject Property being annexed herein will be completed; (iii) the specific facts and terms of assignment are made known to the Village and the Village approves such assignment by corporate resolution; and (iv) the Village shall not unreasonably exercise its right of release herein and shall consider only those factors set forth in this Paragraph.

The Village and Owner agree that to the extent permitted by law, the time for performance of any obligation herein contained may be extended by the mutual agreement of the parties without the necessity of amending this Annexation Agreement. The Village and Owner shall be excused from any obligations under this Agreement to the extent to which either is prohibited from fulfilling such obligation, or required to take an action inconsistent with a provision of this Agreement because of a lawful order or other action by a superior governmental authority. The Village and Owner shall give notice to the other if either receives notice or has knowledge of the taking or proposed taking of such action by a superior governmental authority. Upon the request of the other party, either party may agree to contest such order or other action by judicial or other proceedings, provided the other party equitably participated in the reasonable expenses of such interest.

SECTION TWENTY-FOUR: INCORPORATION OF RECITALS.

The Introduction and Recitals are hereby incorporated into this Agreement.

SECTION TWENTY-FIVE: MUTUAL ASSISTANCE.

The Parties hereto shall do all things necessary and appropriate to carry out the terms, obligations, and provisions of this Agreement and the agreements provided for herein to aid and assist each other in carrying out the terms, obligations, and objectives of the Parties, including, without limitation, the holding of public hearings, the granting of variances, the approval of site

Any and all representations, warranties, indemnifications, covenants, undertakings, and agreements contained herein shall survive the annexation of the Subject Property and shall not be merged or extinguished by the annexation of the Subject Property or any part thereof to the Village.

The Parties hereto agree that this Agreement and/or any Exhibit attached hereto may be amended only by mutual consent of the Parties, by adoption of an ordinance or resolution of the Village approving said amendment, as provided by law, and the execution of said amendment by all of the Parties or their successors in interest.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement and the attached Exhibit A supersedes all prior agreements, negotiations and exhibits and is a full integration of the entire agreement between the Parties.

The Parties acknowledge and agree that the individuals who are members of the group constituting the corporate authorities of the Village are entering into this Agreement in their corporate capacities as members of such group and shall have no personal liability in their individual capacities.

This Agreement shall be enforceable by any of the Parties hereto by any appropriate action at law or in equity.

Time is of the essence in the performance of the obligations of the Parties to this Agreement.

The provisions of this Agreement shall supersede all present and future Village ordinances, codes and regulations and any other alleged agreements and contracts that are in conflict herewith as they may apply to the Subject Property or the Owner.
