Orland Park, IL, December 6, 2018 – On Nov. 28, Steve and Marty Darvin, co-owners of Darvin Furniture & Mattress, took the stage at Four Seasons Hotel in Orlando, FL, to accept the 2018 Leadership Award on behalf of their Orland Park, IL, business. It was a national honor for the Chicagoland furniture retailer that recognized its constant commitment to new initiatives, innovation and to the local community that have helped the business thrive for more than 98 years.

Sharing the national stage with other award winners that included powerhouse brands such as Amazon.com and Haverty's, Darwin Furniture was presented the 2018 Leadership Award by Furniture Today Magazine, the furniture industry's most recognized publication.

According to Bill McLoughlin, editor-in-chief of Furniture Today, the annual Leadership Awards begin early in the year with the creation of a nominees list that is reviewed and deliberated by the magazine staff, as well as furniture industry peers. The recipients are individuals and businesses that have exhibited the necessary qualities that place them at the forefront for sustainable success on several different levels.

"The Furniture Today Industry Leadership Awards are presented to companies that have demonstrated sustained excellence, passion for the furniture business and a commitment to the communities in which they operate," said McLoughlin. "The Darwin family epitomizes all three of those attributes. We are honored to recognize such an exceptional organization and the people who make it such an industry leader."

Steve Darvin says credit must also go out to the many people who have impacted the success of the business over the decades. "Our Darwin family, which includes our amazing employees, trusted vendors, and loyal customers, is how we are able to do what we do. The important role they play – is critical for our approach to business recognition of our industry peers, and thank our employees

According to Steve Darvin, Darwin Furniture has been focused on providing its customers with highest quality products at the most competitive prices for more than 98 years. He says it is so...

that not only takes great commitment and innovation, but it's a process that must constantly be altered in order to succeed in the competitive Chicagoland market.

Marty Darvin agreed with his brother that many people are key to Darvin Furniture's success. "We are so proud to receive the Leadership award from Furniture Today. Everyone at Darvin Furniture works hard each day to strive for personal and professional excellence," he says. "We were fortunate to have our father and grandfather as examples of how to run a business. Their commitments to the work, their employees and to being leaders for us has proven to be priceless."

Darvin Furniture is an A+ Accredited Business with the Better Business Bureau and a recipient of the national 2018 Leadership Award from Furniture Today Magazine and a recipient of the Illinois Retailer of the Year Award (See Video) from the Illinois Retail Merchants Association.
