Title
Proclamation in Honor of PLOWS Council on Aging 45th Anniversary

History
Mayor Pekau proclaims September 21, 2020 as PLOWS Day in the Village of Orland Park in honor of their 45th Anniversary.

PLOWS Council on Aging was founded in 1975 servicing various South Suburban Cook County municipalities connecting the senior community of over 60 and their families to information and resources. PLOWS is a 501(c)3 human service organization that provides community services to thousands of individuals in 20 communities within Palos, Lemont, Orland Park, and Worth Townships.

Mayor Pekau and the Village Board of Trustees congratulate PLOWS on 45 years of helping more than 16,000 individuals in 20 communities with their many programs.
